VISITING MOM + DAD

Dear Daddy -

On this your special day this year - I decided I would try to write and tell you how much I love you and to thank you for being such a Wonderful Dad.

I don't think any child appreciates their parents enough - until they go to be a parent. When I read of abusive fathers, fathers that have deserted their families I thank God for the bottom of my heart for my happy home life and you.

That I felt secure and loved - that you were generous with your time and money.

A person comes to a cross road - in one way I would like to quit work so I could spend more time with you + Mama - but yet financially I find it impossible with the needs facing my immediate family.

Time and money is our most precious commodity on earth.

We have to treasure the time we spent in a family unit since you, Mama + I years ago - & accept the changes that come - because it is life's plan that was set up eons of time ago and by one wiser than you or I.

I'm so busy with so many things that I will be glad for our trip to the reunion in a couple weeks to spend some extensive time with you and Mama.

I'm grateful for the example you set as a good, steady family man. For your happy jovial spirit. For your down to earth, practical approach to life.

May you have a wonderful father's day - because if any father deserves it - you do. For taking on the responsibility of fatherhood and seeing it through is a glory in its own right. You are special. Thanks Dad!

Love -

LDS Church apostle Elder LeGrand Richards always had time to visit after conferences.

Tribute paid Richards

DIED JAN. 11, 1982

1982

SALT LAKE CITY — Funeral services for the venerable Elder LeGrand Richards, 96, a member of the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the LDS Church, were held Friday in the Tabernacle on Temple Square.

Richards, a son and grandson of Mormon apostles, died at the home of a daughter Jan. 11.

Preceding the service, family prayer was held at a local mortuary under the direction of Bishop William H. Nelson of the Salt Lake Monument Park 12th Ward. A son of the deceased, Alden R. Richards, offered the prayer.

President Gordon B. Hinckley, second counselor in the church's First Presidency, conducted the Tabernacle service.

A tribute to the memory of Richards by President Spencer W. Kimball was read by Kimball's personal secretary, D. Arthur Haycock.

Speakers included Hinckley, President Ezra Taft Benson of the Council of the Twelve, Elder Mark E. Petersen and Elder Boyd K. Packer, both members of the council, and G. LaMont Richards, a son of Elder Richards.

The Salt Lake Tabernacle Choir, under the direction of Dr. Gerold Ottley, accompanied by Robert Cundick at the organ, sang "An Angel From on High," "Ye Elders of Israel," (offered by the Men's Chorus), and "Oh My Father."

The invocation was given by Harold R. Boyer and the benediction by J. Glenn Dyer. Both are sons-in-law.

Active pallbearers were six of Richards' 28 grandchildren: Craig Richards Iverson, Reed Richards (Dick) Callister, Harold Roger Boyer, George LaMont Richards Jr., Robert Geoffrey Dyer and Alden LeGrand Richards.

Honorary pallbearers included members of the Council of the Twelve Apostles.

At the Salt Lake Cemetery, the grave was dedicated by Ray L. Richards, a brother.

Born Feb. 6, 1886, in Farmington, one of 15 children of George F. and Alice A. Robinson Richards, LeGrand Richards grew up on a farm in Tooele. He was graduated from high school and attended business school in Salt Lake.

He served as a missionary in the Netherlands, held several jobs in Oregon and Utah before starting his own real estate business in Salt Lake City.

He left the business after being called to serve as a general authority.

At the age of 27, he presided over the Netherlands Mission where he had served just a few years earlier as a missionary.

Later he served as a missionary in the Eastern states and as president of the Southern States Mission.

He was married to Ina Jane Ashton May 19, 1909, in the Salt Lake Temple. Their marriage lasted more than 68 years. She died in 1977.

Survivors are four daughters and two sons, Mrs. Warner (Mercedes) Kiepe; Mrs. Reed E. (Norinne) Callister; Mrs. Harold R. (Marian) Boyer; G. LaMont Richards, Mrs. J. Glenn (Nona) Dyer, and Alden R. Richards, all of Salt Lake City.

He is also survived by 28 grandchildren, 115 great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are seven brothers and sisters: Mrs. Hugh J. (Sarah) Cannon, Mrs. Orson R. (Lucena) Card, Mrs. C.W. (Mamie) Silver, Mrs. F. Orin (Nina) Woodbury, Mrs. Spencer C. (Stell) Taylor, and Ray L. Richards, all of Salt Lake, and Mrs. Lewis J. (Edna) Wallace of Ogden.

Richards was known for his rapid-fire, enthusiastic delivery of his sermons, often punctuated by a dignified sense of humor.

Dear Grandma,

I'm writing a little note to say "I LOVE YOU!!" I really enjoy seeing you when i get the chance. Also I enjoy sleeping over at your house! I am glad to have A speacial GRANDMA like you are.

Grandma's aresweet and kind and Loving. We look at the baby books with our baby pitchers and we laugh at the pitchers we go on bike rides together and have a good time, we play hop- schoy , jump rope, and ball and these are the best times above all!

Grandma,

roses are red.

violets are blue.

sugar is sweet and so are you!

(but,)

Roses are wilted,

Violets are dead,

The sugar bowles empty, but not your head!!!!

love -n- kisses always,
